

Get your Blues on

For the 7th year running its' the Beverley Blues Weekender

Once again the Blues Weekender is almost upon us. Over the 27th - 29th October the Sun Inn and Armstrong's Social Club in Beverley will be home to the Blues.

Headlining the weekend, the Beverley Blues Committee are excited to announce that the Della Grants will be performing at Armstrong's on Saturday the 28th. The Della Grants are the latest British band to merge blues, rock and RnB with an urban twist. The four piece have quickly gained recognition with industry professionals and fellow musicians for their song writing ability and stunning live performances. The Della's are headlining festivals and concerts up and down the country as well as supporting some of the biggest names in live blues. A gig not to be missed. Support is from top local Chicago blues style heroes the Juke Joint Kings.

The Sun Inn will be featuring over 14 live national and local blues acts, including headliners Crosscut Saw, The Alligators and Jonny & The Rizlas. Also appearing are Rivers Johansson & The Deemed Unrighteous, Dogfinger Steve, Chris Martin, Bobby Joyce and Ched (local legend Keith 'Ched' Cheesman and special guest), Soft Shoe Sam and many others.

Tickets for Armstrong's are £10 and available online now via the website beverleyblues.com

Sun Inn is free entry all weekend, see website beverleyblues.com for further details.

Collections will be made to raise funds for local charity the Cherry Tree Community Centre. Registered Charity no. 1163226

About Us

“A voluntary Group of Music/Arts Promoters”

The Beverley Blues Committee was formed from an idea first discussed in November 2010. The committee consists of individuals dedicated to the promotion of live entertainment in Beverley. All are volunteers and give their time out of the sheer love of live entertainment and a desire to see it continue and grow in the community by bringing artists and audiences together.

Contact: info@beverleyblues.com